Philippine-based outsourcing provider of efficient
live support agents

PROFILE

Islandtech is a Philippine-based outsourcing provider of efficient live support agents. Vince Uba, Islandtech's CEO started the company back in 2005 with only a handful of employees. Now, it provides virtual support to clients mostly located in the US.

LOCATION

Islandtech's base of operation is located in Cagayan de Oro City, a very accessible city in the northern part of the island of Mindanao. Mindanao, the largest island in the Philippines, is home to a multitude of talented people, a resource that is most particularly useful in the virtual support arena.
